YANKEE RECEIVER GIVES HIS VIEWS ON PITCHING IN THE AMERICAN LEAGUE

New York.—The fast ball, the pitch which made Walter John's name a legend, has become the chief weapon of American league moundmen this season, in the opinion of Bill Fickey, New York Yankees star catcher.

"In fact," said the six foot receiver, "that ball pitching unquestionably is the feature of American league play this season."

They're powerful that of ball in fast and fast. They're using less brawnwork, less curves and much more strength than ever before.

The elongated backstop from Baltimore explained in his own southern drawl that a few smart pitchers remained in his circuit but that most of the mound not-ables were speed kings.

Why most of these boys don't even look to see where the ball is, he continued. They don't care. They just wind up and let drive. They don't care where the ball goes because they know you can't catch a little change of hitting it effectively when it comes steaming across.

While most of the fastball set there make little attempt to curve the ball, Fickey explained, their deliveries usually have a little hop at the end, because they are thrown over handed.

"I'm holding my chin a little lowish this season, he admitted, because our own pitchers are burning you across and I'm taking no chances on getting hit in the throat. Take Gomez, Phipps, Ruffing and Allen; they're patting plenty of souls on the chin all this year. So I'm showing my mask down and holding my chin lowish."

He named a list of "bombable" ball hitters in other clubs: Bridges, Wyatt, Whitehill and Sorrell with Detroit; Crowder and Marberry at Washington; Frazier and Thomas at Chicago; Perrell, Brown and Hafflin, of the Cleveland Indians. Backslider with the Louisville Braves and Karschak, Grove and Walberg with the Athletics.

A few hurlers continue to depend on curves and on the individual pitcher's weakness, he said, outstanding among these smart pitchers are Sad Sam Jones and Ted Lyons, of Chicago; MacPhee of Boston; Wells and Pennington of the Yankees and Stewart of St. Louis.

Although he was on the bench at Detroit and did not bat against Earl Whitehill, Fickey said, his teammates found him perhaps the most difficult man to hit in the league.

CANADA CONCEDED FINE CHANCE FOR OLYMPICS

Toronto.—Two months before the opening of the Olympic games at Los Angeles, Canadian observers of track and field doings are studying, with no sign of worry, the record breaking performances of the French, Japanese, Finns and Americans.

The impressive list of new records compiled recently by prospective Olympic competitors contains the name of not one Canadian nor that matter, of one British. As the United States and France contributed most of the program thrills in 1928, however, also Canada and Great Britain share the greater share of actual Olympic glory at Amsterdam, the celebrated observers do not discount Canada's chances in the forthcoming Olympic festival. The Dominion is estimated to have a much better chance to win points than four years ago.

At this time in 1928 Percy Williams was virtually unknown to the sport world. Today, holder of the Olympic 100 and 200 metre championships, he is a famous speed king with an uncertain leg. For more than a year the Vancouver flyer has been grounded; others have taken his place at the top of the world's ranking of the fleet.

Williams will be in form for the Canadian trials at Hamilton in June, according to close friends and it is his country's Olympic stock will shoot up several points. Williams will go to Los Angeles at the head of a better sprint section than Canada sent to Amsterdam.

Johnny Fitzpatrick, almost a veteran campaigner with more than six years of racing and Olympic games behind him, is one of the best all round speedsters in

HEARD ON THE STREET

Friend—Why do you insist on your daughter's boy friend (Herb) staying at your home for a whole month?

Father—I wanted to find out before I gave my consent to their marriage whether I could afford to board him.

After the promulgation of the Federal House we're safe from further taxation for a year. For this we should give a stick of toilet, which is about all we have left to give.

When we asked Doctor Hay worth if the false teeth he is making for us would look natural, he said they couldn't look more natural. He's going to make them as natural they're going to ache. We have a good mind to go to a poor dentist.

The world, Bert Pearson, an year old schoolboy with a sensational burst of speed, stands in the place where Williams did in April 1931. Pearson was caught more the once in his 100 year in 9.45 seconds. If he develops quick enough, his place on the Olympic squad is certain. He may be earning world records by July.

Cameron of Strathmore if he continues to improve and in shape will give some of the confederates a sore headache before they conquer him.

With Williams and Jimmy the Winnipeg quarter miler, striving to regain somewhat lost form, the Dominion's greatest hope in the California games is the decorated Alex Wilson, of Montreal and Notre Dame university. Wilson just as good at the quarter as he is at the half, leans toward the longer distance, and probably will concentrate on the six metres.

Young Fred Shaver, the Anacostia, Ont. farm boy who has turned in some brilliant half mile times, may catch with the Olympic team and Phil Edwards, now attending McGill, will be difficult to sidetrack. Whatever team of multi-thunders wears the Maple Leaf will rank high with the best in the games. Veteran Harold Webster, of Hamilton, and Johnny Miles have already been selected.

If Gordon Smallcombe, of Toronto, is sent to the games he will give Canada a chance to win points in the field division. Other wise the Dominion can hope for some brilliant half mile times among hop, step and jumpers.

Two old maids were in an in same asylum for years, always knitting and knitting. "Gee," sighed the older one day, "I wish some tall handsome man would wind his arms around me and squeeze me until I kasp."

"Now you're talking sense," from Joyce. "You'll be out of here in a few days."

My dear, it was very interesting at that dinner last night and I was talking to a Pole most of the time. "Oh John. And you promised you wouldn't have more than one drink."

A man applied to a famous film producer for a super's job. Like so many other super's in Hollywood, he had had no work for weeks. "Well," replied the magnate, "I might be able to use you. See me in a month's time."

"You want me at all," replied the actor, "you'd better put me on to pay my old debt now. These are 100 of other comp's, a after me."

"Yes," answered the director, who had often heard that remark before. "And what companies are they?"

"Well," said the actor, "there's the light company, the gas company, the telephone company and—"

The director laughed and the man was put on the salary list.

"You're unbearable," exclaimed the young wife angrily. "You'll soon be impossible to live with."

"How soon, dear?" said the husband.

Teacher—Can any one tell what "bedroom" is?

Small boy—Please. Miss a thing they use at a wedding.

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER CROP PRICE GUARANTY

Take advantage of this offer...
Get the new equipment you need to reduce your production costs

Many farmers who need new machines for the economical production of their crops have been reluctant to buy them because of uncertainty as to the prices they will receive later in the year for these farm products.

In order to meet this situation, the International Harvester Company of Canada, Ltd., offers to farmers purchasing machines after this date, a definite price guaranty on wheat based on 77 cents a bushel for No. 1 Northern at Winnipeg, applying to a liberal portion of the purchase price of the machine. If the market price for wheat does not reach the guaranteed price at the time payment becomes due on notes given and maturing this year, the purchaser of machines under the plan will receive a credit equal to the difference.

Any farmer in Canada, regardless of where he lives or what he raises, can purchase McCormick-Deering farm machines under the terms of this offer.

This is your chance to replace wornout and obsolete equipment on a favorable price basis. Let us explain the details of this remarkable plan and tell you just how to take advantage of it in equipping your farm with the new cost-reducing machines you need at a real saving.

ELIMINATION OF RAILWAY COMPETITION IS RECOMMENDED

A recommendation that all the vessels of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine should be sold or leased was one of the chief features of the unanimous report of the Parliamentary Committee dealing with the affairs of the Canadian National, which was adopted by the House of Commons after a very brief discussion. Sir Henry Thornton had told the committee that the Merchant Marine should have no modern vessels or should be disposed of altogether. There has been a heavy annual deficit on operation in addition to the capital charges and depreciation. If the Government acts on the recommendation to dispose of the vessels, this will be the end of the experiment in government shipping which began with Canada's building ships during the War to help to make up for the heavy loss of British merchant ships. After the War, the ships were retained as a means of encouraging the extension of Canadian trade by providing shipping services to various countries. And the facilities thus provided were of very considerable value and did help Canadian export trade. A number of the vessels have been sold in recent years. If the rest are now disposed of, the amount that will be saved will be lessened by the subsidies that will be paid for the maintenance of regular shipping services by private steamship companies. The greater part of the capital cost of the vessels, of course will have to be written off as a loss. The Canadian Government Merchant Marine does not include the Canadian National ships sailing to the West Indies, which are good, modern vessels and will be retained.

Practically all the recommendations in the report says the Winnipeg Press have to do with carrying out a policy or rigid economy. The saving that might be effected by the elimination of some of the competition between the Canadian National and the Canadian Pacific Railway is not factored on, as this is being fully investigated by the Royal Commission under the chairmanship of Mr. Justice Duff. But during the discussion of the report in the House, Premier Bennett indicated that there were limits to the saving to be made in that direction. Mr. J. T. Hackett, a Quebec member had talked of a saving of $20,000,000 or $100,000,000 in the next 12 months, but Mr. Bennett remarked that this was ridiculous and that under present traffic conditions, it would be impossible to save any sum like $20,000,000 or even a reasonable fraction of that sum.

CANADA IS PROUD OF THEIR JUDICIARY

The Toronto Globe says that Premier Bennett's comments in Parliament on the 10 per cent levy on the incomes of Judges open for consideration a subject of the first importance. Two of the Premier's remarks call for special attention: "Judges are not adequately paid" and "The judicial body does not reflect the legal genius of this country."

There is logic in the conclusion that the first condition implies the latter. With Judges salaries as they are at present, many leading lights of the Bar will not be attracted to the Bench. Men who are making several hundred dollars a day will not regard as adequate the remuneration even of a Chief Justice. However, it does not follow that eminent counsel would attain equal distinction as administrators of the law.

There is room for criticism of the method of selecting members of the judiciary. In too many cases appointment to the Bench allows active participation in party politics, but it must be said to the credit of such appointees that variably they have been able to cast aside political predilections and devote themselves assiduously to the administration of justice. They have done their part in maintaining the Canadian judiciary beyond reproach and as meriting the admiration of jurists in all parts of the world.

That is the condition today; a condition that must continue. Looking toward that future, Premier Bennett spoke of the desirable ity of getting away from "patronage in appointments to the Bench." The chief difficulty in the way of this is the salary question. Lawyers who have been long in the profession are eager for promotion to the judiciary at present salaries while the average salaried professional man would rather prefer his present position. The day does not seem to have arrived when men of high legal attainment, men of "the legal mind" who glory in the honor of their profession, are attracted to the judiciary by opportunity. In service of the hottest under a party, but a fact, that monetary considerations stand in the way. Canadians are proud of their judiciary. It has maintained the reputation of a court system, enjoying the confidence of the public. It is desirable that the business of the legal profession should interpret the laws of the land, and the remuneration should be such as to ensure this. Unfortunately, those are just the things that it is necessary to rectify rather than increase the salaries of Judges. While the present high standing of the courts will not be affected by this tax, it is well to look forward. It is well to hope the time may come when, both for remuneration and for the high honor associated with it, a seat on the Bench may be the crowning ambition of every capable member of the legal profession.

JACK DEMPSEY APPARENTLY ABANDONS COMEBACK PLANS

Chicago—Apparently, Jack Dempsey, of Chicago, and Max Baer of California will meet in a 10 round bout here July 4, Reno News Item.

That's nothing much to get excited about, but it means that Jack Dempsey has abandoned his plans to try a comeback this summer. Dempsey was offered $250,000 in real money by a Reno syndicate to meet Primo Carnera, Levinsky, who was the heavy weight in the Nevada city July 4, and turned it down.

Instead, he will turn to the promoting end again, despite the fact that he lost a lot of money trying to stage fights at the Chicago Coliseum two years ago. Some say this wasn't Dempsey's money, but anyway he failed because he overpaid the fighters. When he went after an attraction he wouldn't docket, but would pay the price asked, and managers soon found this out.

Dempsey will sponsor the Levinsky Baer bout, probably will referee it, and will share in the profits provided there are any. If there are any losses, the Reno syndicate probably will stand them. The Reno bout itself isn't expected to make money, but to attract spectators and sponsors to the gambling tables, hotel and resorts.

Since Dempsey's exhibition tour ended, he has been recuperating his hotel in Los Angeles, which came back into his ownership when the previous owners defaulted on the note.

"Fore!" yelled E. W. Whiteside, ready to play. But the woman on the course paid no attention.

"Fore!" he shouted again with no effect.

"Ah," suggested D. A. Perry, in disgust, try her once with "three ninety-eight!"

Well, old top, I see that a news despatch from Vancouver says it is illegal to charge admission to see a wedding. Evidently the B.C. authorities think the bridegroom pays dearly enough for the privilege of being present.

Young yachtsmen from Canada, New-gather at the Lakeside Inn, Yarmouth, N.S., from July 8 to July 15, 1932, to compete for the handsome silver cup, presented by H. B. H. the Prince of Wales to the Royal Welsh Navy Scout Yacht Squadron for competition between juniors and was last season by the Pleon Yacht Club, of Marblehead, Mass., who are now defending it against all comers.

Entries are restricted to boys and girls between the ages of 12 and 18 and the craft used are Marconi rigged yachts of the new "Aradian" class, built last year for the Lakeside Inn and the Lakeside Yacht Club.
Sailing will take place on Mirlo Lake, which is the Canadian Pacific Railway's latest link in a vast chain of hostilities across Canada, and a record attendance of contestants and spectators is expected from all the representative yachting organizations of three countries. The pictures show the beautiful hotel in its ideal setting; a typical yacht and the much-coveted cup, itself.

ROCKYFOUR NOTES

A very pleasant time was had by the younger children on Saturday afternoon, May 21st when Mrs W.
Ponroy entertained in honor of Mrs. H. H. Ponroy's birthday. Judging from the joyous shouts issuing from that locality of the town, the games and lunch must have been exactly to their liking.

From the latest reports of Mrs.
Ponroy and Miss Mary they are both on the way to recovery.

The friends of Mr and Mrs Hanan arrived at the Church on Monday evening for a farewell party before they leave for the Valley where Mr Hanna is engaging in business in the grocery line. The evening was spent in music and games with a splendid lunch served in the basement. A this time for it C. W. Wooten spoke a few words of appreciation for the assistance the departing couple had been to him since coming to our town. Then Mr. Wooten on behalf of the town gave a few words of regret as losing such good neighbors, but wished them every success in their new enterprise.
He presented them with a suitcase of remembrance from friends.

Hanna made very fitting reply.
Mr and Mrs Hanna left on Saturwill enjoy better health in the new home.

The Wet weather on and before the 24th of May made the road
in bad condition for the Day Scout

Daylight saving time, commencing in Quebec and Ontario provinces May 1, occasioned little comment in Canadian Pacific travel. Travelers have nowadays learned that the railways remain on standard time and govern themselves accordingly. The railway announced a number of train time alterations prior to the introduction of daylight saving.

From little Norfolk Island in the South Pacific, one of the smallest islands in the British Empire, an excellent sample of beans for exhibition at the World's Grain Exhibition and Conference to be held at Regina July 1932, has just arrived. Norfolk Island is the scene of the punishment of the mutineers of the "Bounty" in 1846 but it has long ago changed from a penal to a prosperous settlement. (H41)

their regular meeting at the locality of Mrs. Birt on Thursday, May 26, with Mrs. Bradwell as hostess. A good number were present considering the weather. Many small naïvetés claimed their attention. The Foot Sale which was to take place on Saturday next is postponed till the 11th of June and will be held in the Poole Hall ware. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Birt on Thursday, June 2nd. At the close of the business a delightful luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Harwood gave the little but a most enjoyable afternoon when
